387 - Washington State Arts Commission

Grant awards to organizations provide financial support for essential programs, leveraging additional funding, reducing admission prices and expanding public access to quality arts programs. Organizations are also supported for specific educational programs and initiatives. Funding is directed to organizations in various stages of development and requires accountability and evaluation reporting. General operating expenses are supported by two of the agency's grant categories; this is one of the rarest forms of grant funds available to organizations.

Organizations strengthen their financial stability and leadership capabilities. Funding is allocated to a range of arts organizations, enhancing the impact to communities, making the arts more affordable and bringing diverse cultural offerings to audiences statewide. Arts organizations contribute to the economic vitality of their communities and the state, attracting new business and contributing to the local workforce and tax base. In FY04 we anticipate at least 330 grants from arts organizations around the state requesting funding and to fund at least 280 of those grants.

Citizens have access to high quality, professional artwork in state agencies, universities, colleges and public schools. The artwork enhances the public areas where people live, work and study; expresses diverse cultures; and provides a visual response to the criteria developed by the citizens who select it. Individual artists are supported through purchase of existing work and commission of new work. The program increases awareness of and participation in the state art collection by the public; and preserves the state's investment in the state art collection through conservation. In Fiscal Year 2004 our target is another 30 artworks acquired for the State Art Collection and at least another 85 artworks preserved.

32732 Support the Arts as Basic Education

387 - Washington State Arts Commission

The arts are integrated into learning opportunities for Washington students of all ages. The agency funds arts education at many levels including programs at Washington's public schools, professional arts training institutes, and through folk arts apprenticeships. Teachers, artists and pre-service teachers are trained in the Essential Academic Learning Requirements (EALRs) in Agency Priority: the Arts, in integrating the arts with other subject areas, and in assessing student progress in the arts. Students received hands-on instruction from professional artists, and school districts develop arts curricula based on the EALRs. Adult learners – including pre-service teachers, arts administrators and others – are trained in the arts, arts management and community development in the arts through agency-provided workshops and training assistance.

Total $ $2,156,348 GFS $ $1,983,025 Other $ $173,323 FTEs 3.8

Expected Results

The arts are fully integrated into K-12 education. Washington's classroom teachers integrate the arts into curriculum and teaching. Arts learning prepares students for entry into the 21st century workforce. Public school students learn about the arts, and create and perform music, drama, dance, visual arts and creative writing. Professional artists learn how to teach their art forms to youth, college students learn to be professional artists, and artists of various cultures pass traditions to younger generations. Adult learners are effective teachers, arts administrators and artists. In FY04 our goal is at least 1,500 teachers trained in the essential learning requirements in the arts and another 50,000 students will benefit from Washington State Arts Commission funded education programs.

32735 Community Outreach Activities

390 - Washington State Historical Society

In administering the Heritage Capital Projects Fund, the society offers training on the grant application process; manages the ranking of submissions by an advisory panel; monitors performance; and processes requests for reimbursement. It collaborates with Washington State University-Vancouver and Portland State University in operating the Center for Columbia River Agency Priority: History (CCRH), which provides public programs, historical information, teacher training, and curriculum materials. This activity also includes the Heritage Resource Center (HRC), which provides technical assistance to local heritage groups, and the Washington State Capital Museum (WSCM), which offers exhibits, public programs, curriculum support, and school tours. (Local Museum Account-Washington State Historical Society)

Total $ $1,586,561 GFS $ $923,366 Other $ $663,195 FTEs 5.3

Expected Results

To date, 103 projects have been funded resulting in the investment of $16.2 million of state funds and $80.6 million in non-state funds and in-kind donations going into heritage projects statewide. Museums and cultural centers have been built or renovated, historic buildings and ships have been restored, and archives established. Support has gone to non-profit organizations, cities, counties, public development authorities, and tribes allowing them to share in the extensive work of preserving and interpreting Washington's rich history. To date, the CCRH has conducted public lectures, workshops, and conferences that have attracted well over 4,500 attendees to hear directly from some of the most noted scholars and eyewitnesses to the history of the Basin. It has provided community-level research findings and shared them on the CCRH.org website. The CCRH has successfully attracted other support, including the National Endowment for the Humanities. The HRC has provided services in all 39 counties of the state. It has offered 115 workshops on the key areas of concern for local heritage organizations, including governance, fund raising, and technical issues surrounding preserving and interpreting artifacts from the past. The HRC provides five on-site consultations per month, on average. The net effect is to establish a broader understanding of current standards in the museum and heritage fields and achieve their application in even the smallest institutions in the state. The primary focus of exhibits and education programs at the WSCM has been how our state and its capital came to be and subjects related to state government. On average about 20,000 people use the WSCM facilities each year

The society owns and operates three facilities: the Washington State History Museum, the Washington State Historical Society Research Center in Tacoma, and the State Capital Museum in Olympia. These combined facilities include 110,000 square feet of museum space; 51,000 square feet of collection storage and research space; and an historic house on the National Register near the Capitol Campus. Agency Priority:

Expected Results

The society aspires to an outstanding customer satisfaction goal. Since the opening of the new State History Museum in 1996, building cleanliness has greatly contributed to a high customer satisfaction rating, when compared with peer organizations across the country, such as Bay Area Discovery Museum, Oakland Museum of California, Pacific Science Center, Peabody Essex Museum, Space Center Houston, and San Diego Zoo. The average customer satisfaction rating for an excellent score in building cleanliness is 95 percent. Building cleanliness also contributes to a reduced need for repairs, and discourages vandalism, further preserving the state's assets.

32739 State Historical Exhibits

390 - Washington State Historical Society

The society's exhibits interpret objects, manuscripts, sites, photographs, and other materials illustrative of the cultural, artistic, and natural history of our state. Exhibits educate citizens and can be large and comprehensive, such as the 22,000-square-foot Great Hall of Washington History, or smaller and focused, such as exhibits about Mt. Rainier, the Klondike Gold Rush, treaties with Indians, or Lewis and Clark. (Local Museum Account-Washington State Historical Society)

Agency Priority:

Expected Results

The agency monitors exhibit outcomes anecdotally and systematically. Staff listens to visitors' comments, responds to specific questions, read comment books, and watches visitors as they move through the galleries. Formal visitor surveys at least annually have shown visitors rating exhibits "excellent" at substantially higher rates than the benchmark of other museums. Between July 1, 2002, and June 30, 2004, we expect to present 15 temporary exhibits at the State History Museum, and three temporary exhibits at the State Capital Museum. We expect to retain all the long-term exhibits in both museums during that time.
